Experience

PRESENT

Everyday Health Group | NEW YORK, NY
VP of Design
theSkimm, acquired by EHG April 2025

Own brand identity and design systems for a digital-first media brand, growing the newsletter audience to 6 million readers through consistent design expression across digital, social, and content platforms.

Set the creative bar for commercial and partnership work, building the review process that keeps sponsored content indistinguishable in quality from core editorial.

Build and run AI-assisted creative workflows that cut production turnaround from two weeks to about two days, without lowering the craft bar.

Sit inside brand and product leadership alongside engineering and growth, reporting directly to the CTO, so design decisions get made at the table rather than brought in after the fact.
